1	5.56%		I was pretty excited about this. Thanks for the opportunity!
1	5.56%		It was a lot of fun! Definitely worth it!
1	5.56%		It was cool, but I didn't know much about indy car
1	5.56%		It was interesting, but a little bit confusing as to why we were allowed to tour the Indy Car garage, but turns out I just briefly missed the connection between Nucor and Indy.
1	5.56%		Maybe touring another facility would be good
1	5.56%		Sarah's garage was awesome, but we spent too much time at dallar
1	5.56%		Some people really seemed excited about the cars. I think it was interesting, but I guess I just am not interested in cars.

1	5.56%	<input type="checkbox"/>	The Indy car garage tour was one of the best parts of the trip, right behind the mill tour. It was very cool, seeing what goes into building an Indy car and how people prepare for the races.
1	5.56%	<input type="checkbox"/>	The tour was a lot of fun. The best part for sure was being able to ride in the Indy car.
1	5.56%	<input type="checkbox"/>	We were there considerably too long for what we had to do there.

1	5.88%	<input type="checkbox"/>	It was an amazing experience. I actually really enjoyed having the Hot Mill and Cold mill being in two different days. It makes the information easier to absorb. I would've liked to tour the Castrip Mill, but I understand the privacy issues with that.

The only bad part was that it was hard to hear the tour guides at times and I missed what was happening at different parts of the tour. Otherwise it was a great experience and I would definitely go back and visit the facility again.
1	5.88%	<input type="checkbox"/>	The tour could not have been better. They did a great job planning it.

Count	Percent
20	100.00%
1	5.00%		Absolutley
1	5.00%		After seeing the family mentality of the NUCOR employees, as well as the many "hats" worn by each individual, their personal job satisfaction, and expertise, I feel that I would not only enjoy working for NUCOR, but have the opportunity to grow and improve as a person.
1	5.00%		Employees are treated well and paid for production, everybody I talked to seemed to love their job, workers were thrilled to answer questions, making steel is an extremely cool process, the company is concerned for the environment and the ethical standards of its suppliers, I like small towns...
1	5.00%		Every single person who works for Nucor had nothing but good things to say about the company and how much they love their jobs. This was the largest selling point. I really like Nucor's values and how they base promotions on if you have earned them or not. In addition, I like you earn more if the company makes more. This is an excellent incentive to not slack off. Another aspect would be how it seems to be a really hands on job. Finally, I love how the company gives a lot of responsibility and a voice to everyone, including interns.
1	5.00%		Everyone I spoke to loves their job and all talked about how well the companyand their fellow co workers ttreathem. I also think I would enjoy working in a steel mill.
1	5.00%		Great corporate culture
1	5.00%		I love the people that work there. The environment seems very hands on.
1	5.00%		I really enjoyed watching the electrodes melt the metal and would like to be apart of making it happen.
1	5.00%		I think the mindset of the company is fantastic. I love the team mentality

1	5.00%	<input type="text"/>	I would consider working for this company because, of the atmosphere the people there work in and the way they talked about being a teammate. I was also very interested inn the process of producing the steel in the Hot Mill.
1	5.00%	<input type="text"/>	It offers a different working environment for power engineers versus the stereotypical distribution engineering or power plant work.
1	5.00%	<input type="text"/>	Nucor seems like an extremely honest and amazing company to work for. They seem to treat their employees with respect. I enjoy the innovative technologies that are being adopted by Nucor and their willingness to try new things. I loved that they interacted with our campus, it shows that they really do care. I also highly enjoy the environment and attitudes of those working there.
1	5.00%	<input type="text"/>	The brand that they have and the sense of community and being a family
1	5.00%	<input type="text"/>	The people there said they like coming into work every day for the coworkers and the job. You need both good people to work with and a good job in order to enjoy your career, so that is a great selling point. The mill itself was another great influence on why i would love a career at Nucor.
1	5.00%	<input type="text"/>	The people, mainly. I really liked how welcoming everyone was and so nice!
1	5.00%	<input type="text"/>	The small town feel and taking care of people.

1	5.00%	<input type="text"/>	They treat every employee or "teammate" equally, from the head manager down to the on-the-floor guy. There is an insistance that teammates are safe at home in addition to in the work place. It appears to be an employee run company and an excellent place to work.
1	5.00%	<input type="text"/>	YES!!!!!!!
1	5.00%	<input type="text"/>	Yes, definitely.
