Ms. Dallas called the meeting to order and proceeded to invite all attendees to introduce themselves, their company and position.

2.0 ANTI-TRUST GUIDELINE REVIEW

Ms. Dallas briefly reviewed the AIST Anti-Trust Guidelines provided in everyone's packet.

3.0 COMMITTEE PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVE

Ms. Dallas indicated that the AIST Foundation University–Industry Relations Roundtable exists to foster Communication between our university network and the steel industry. The committee objectives are to increase the number of professors teaching a steel-related curriculum, and to increase the number of students interested in a career in the steel industry.

4.0 REAL STEEL VIDEO CONTEST UPDATE

Ms. Beiswanger provided a brief update on the 2019 “Real Steel” Marketing Video Challenge competition. She indicated that a total of twelve videos were received, and that the Grand Prize winner was Karthik Ramesh Iyer from the Indian Institute of Technology Roorkee, for the video titled “Steelmaking - New Age Innovations.” The video was shown live to the group gathered. She included that the video will be shown at the President’s Award Breakfast on Tuesday morning.

5.0 STEEL TO STUDENTS PROGRAM REVIEW

Ms. Schleiden provided an overview presentation of the Steel to Students program, and the various opportunities for university students through the AIST Foundation. All of the programs are available to review on the AIST website.

6.0 2019 INTERNSHIP SURVEY

Mr. McKelvey briefly re-capped the 2018 Intern Survey and provided the intended questions for the 2019 survey. Suggestions were offered including:

- Add “The area I grew Up” as a possible influence on their interest in steel.
- Consolidate several answers into “drop down” options
- Separate out Co-Ops.
- As if the internship was what they expected based on the details provided in advance.

Mr. McKelvey indicated the survey will be issued over the summer, and the results will be shared at the next UIRR in Portland, Ore.

Antitrust Compliance

Antitrust law prohibits agreements or understandings between two or more individuals or businesses to regulate prices or quantities of goods and services, to allocate customers or territories, to hinder or limit a competitor or potential competitor's operations, or otherwise unreasonably restrain business activity. Discriminatory pricing or servicing is also prohibited. Every individual who participates in AIST meetings and activities should follow these guidelines:

- DON'T discuss with other members your own or competitors' prices, pricing procedures, or anything that might affect prices such as costs, discounts, terms of sale, or profit margins, or anticipated wage rates.
- DON'T make announcements or statements about your own prices or those of competitors.
- DON'T talk about what individual companies plan to do in particular markets or with particular customers.
- DON'T disclose to others any competitively sensitive information.
- DON'T propose or agree to any action intended to disadvantage or injure another company.
- DON'T stay at a meeting or activity where any such anti-competitive talk occurs.
- DO have an AIST staff person present at any meetings and insist on the agenda being followed and minutes kept.
- DO confer with AIST staff before making any statement with competitive ramifications.

It is incumbent upon all AIST members to adhere to these guidelines to avoid putting all parties and their respective companies at risk for antitrust law violation.
