Red Bud Industries Receives Order for .135” (3.5 mm) x 72” (1829 mm) Slit Coil Packaging Line
From Ohio Slitting & Storage

RED BUD, Illinois (February 11, 2021) – Red Bud Industries recently received an order for a .135” (3.5 mm) x 72” (1829 mm) Slit Coil Packaging Line from Ohio Slitting & Storage, a full slitting and storage center located in Camden, Ohio. The new Packaging Line will include a Fully-Automatic ID Banding system that will allow the line to operate with minimal personnel. The new line will also include an Automatic Stacker and an Eight Position Sortation Table. The table allows multiple coils to be stacked onto a single skid, or it can be used to separate multiple jobs run from the same master coil. In addition, Skid Storage Conveyors will be used to stage skidded finished coils prior to their removal. The line also includes a Rotating Skid Conveyor, which will be used to change direction of conveyor travel. It can also be used in conjunction with a stretch wrapping unit.

The Packaging line will consist of an Automatic Coil Stacker, Eight Position Sortation Table, Fully-Automatic Banding Table, and Exit Rotating Conveyor. The line will be able to handle 10,000 lb (4500 kg) coils.
