

ADVANCE YOUR CAREER IN STEEL

BERNARD J. FEDAK PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT GRANT

INVEST IN YOUR FUTURE — AND STRENGTHEN YOUR PROJECT MANAGEMENT SKILLS IN THE STEEL INDUSTRY

AIST, in partnership with the Project & Construction Management Technology Committee, awards three grants of up to US$2,500 each to support professionals pursuing careers in project management at steel-producing or steel-related companies.

Grant funds may be used toward:

- Registration for
Project Management: 101 • 1–3 March 2027 • Columbus, Ohio, USA
Project Management: 201 • 3–5 March 2027 • Columbus, Ohio, USA
- Airfare and hotel accommodations
- Meals and other eligible travel expenses

WHO SHOULD APPLY?

Professionals working in or interested in pursuing a career in project management within the steel industry who are committed to continuing education and professional development.

APPLICATION DEADLINE IS 31 DECEMBER 2026.

Contact Courtney Young at cyoung@AIST.org for more information.

LEARN MORE AND APPLY TODAY

*Three grants awarded annually. Maximum of US$7,500 awarded through the program each year. Grant funds are provided as reimbursement following successful completion of the training program and submission of required documentation.